

I began my coaching having a vague idea of what I wanted and even a cloudier idea of how to get there. I was lucky enough to work with Ani at a time in my life in which I was able to turn a bunch of challenges and adversity into my biggest strengths. As of now I have fulfilled my plan at every step and am itching to use what I have learned as I continue as a young professional. Coaching has not only gotten me through many college decisions but has given me a road marker to let me really achieve everything that I want in life. I can only equate it to using techniques to be able to see my goal instead of just winging it and hoping for the best. My entire family has also taken notice, especially my mom who cannot thank her enough for truly helping me achieve my goals and giving me the tools to continue to pursue my dreams. Thank you!
